

Community Data Program

Enabling communities across Canada to measure and track local well-being

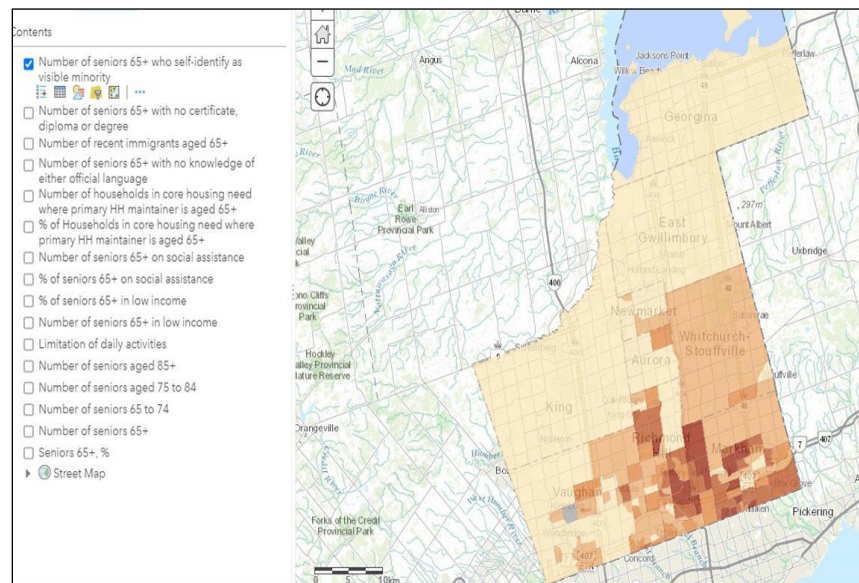

Community Snapshot

The Regional Municipality of York

Summary

The Regional Municipality of York produced an online map to represent information on selected demographic and socio-economic variables related to seniors (people 65+ years old) in York Region. The map is aiming to help service planners and decision makers to better understand York Region senior population and its needs.

Click here to view Seniors in York Region online map

Practitioner

Anna Malenkov is a program manager with the Community and Health Services Department of the Regional Municipality of York.

Community data used

- Census, 2016 – Target group profile, Statistics Canada

The Community Data Program is an initiative of the Canadian Community Economic Development Network